JANUARY 11, 2026 | THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Examining the Creed

Each statement in the Creed is firmly grounded in Scripture and tradition. This study aims to explore these foundational truths more deeply, helping us understand what we affirm every time we recite it. When we proclaim the Creed with greater clarity and conviction, we enter into a more profound communion with God—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—and with the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

Join us on Tuesdays from February 17 through March 24, 9:30 to 10:30AM at StCA-GR. To register, contact Simon Biagui at 414-365-2020, ext. 304, or biaguis@nwmcp.org. Please order the book from <https://twentythirdpublications.com>.

Gospel reflection: Matthew 3:13-17

At the Jordan River, we witness a profound moment of humility and obedience as Jesus, though sinless, insists on being baptized by John. This act reveals Jesus fully embracing His mission to stand in solidarity with humanity, identifying with us in our need for renewal and transformation. John's initial reluctance shows he recognizes Jesus' superiority, yet Jesus responds that this is necessary "to fulfill all righteousness"—to complete God's plan of salvation. As Jesus rises from the water, the heavens open and the Spirit descends like a dove, a gentle yet powerful sign of God's presence and approval. The Father's voice rings out with words every human heart longs to hear: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." This theophany—this revelation of the Trinity—marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry and affirms His identity as the long-awaited Messiah. In this baptism, we see the perfect union of divine love and human obedience, a pattern for our own lives as beloved children of God. When we are baptized, we too are invited into this same relationship, called beloved and empowered by the Spirit to live out our own calling.
