JANUARY 25, 2026 | THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Examining the Creed

Each statement in the Creed is firmly grounded in Scripture and tradition. This study aims to explore these foundational truths more deeply, helping us understand what we affirm every time we recite it. When we proclaim the Creed with greater clarity and conviction, we enter into a more profound communion with God—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—and with the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

Join us on Tuesdays from February 17 through March 24, 9:30 to 10:30AM at StCA-GR. To register, contact Simon Biagui at 414-365-2020, ext. 304, or biaguis@nwmcp.org. A limited number of books will be available thanks to a generous donation. They are also available at <https://twentythirdpublications.com>.

Forgiven: a Lenten series

Join us on Wednesdays during Lent to learn how to more deeply grow your faith through forgiveness. This series will run from February 25 through March 25, 9:15 to 10:00AM, at OLGH in the church.

To register, call or email Simon Biagui at 414-365-2020, ext. 304, or biaguis@nwmcp.org.

Return old palms

As part of our liturgical celebration on Palm Sunday, the priest blesses the palms used to remind us of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. The congregation took these palms home and displayed them as a remembrance throughout the year. Because these palms have been blessed, they should be disposed of properly. Our parishes are collecting prior years' palms to be burned in the fire at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. Please place your palms in the receptacles at the back of any of our churches.

Gospel reflection: John 1:29-34

In today's Gospel, Jesus begins His public ministry with a clear and urgent message: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This call to conversion isn't a condemnation but an invitation to turn toward the light that has dawned in Galilee, fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy that those walking in darkness would see a great light. Jesus doesn't wait for perfect disciples; He calls ordinary fishermen in the midst of their daily work, showing us that holiness isn't reserved for the spiritually accomplished but offered to all who are willing to follow. The immediacy of Peter, Andrew, James, and John's response challenges us to examine our own willingness to leave behind what holds us back from deeper discipleship. Like those first apostles, we are called not just to believe in Jesus but to follow Him actively, allowing our nets and boats—whatever keeps us comfortable and complacent—to be left behind. Jesus promises to make us "fishers of men," reminding us that discipleship is never just about our own salvation but about drawing others into the kingdom. As we hear this Gospel today, let us ask ourselves: What is Jesus calling me to leave behind, and how am I being invited to participate in His mission of proclaiming the kingdom? May we respond with the same courage and trust as those first disciples, knowing that Jesus walks ahead of us, calling us by name.

~ Blessings, Fr. Mark Payne

May their souls and the souls of all of our faithful departed rest in eternal peace. Please remember them and their families in your prayers.

Donations needed for the food pantry

Our pantry is grateful for the support of NWMCP! We are stronger when we work together. For February, we are asking for donations of boxed cereal, pancake mix, and syrup. We also need sturdy plastic bags, brown paper bags, and clean reusable egg cartons.

Please bring items and leave them in the drop-off containers at any of our parishes. Thank you for making it possible to feed more needy families in our neighborhood.

Dying Well: The Catholic Art of Spiritual and Sacramental Care

Join the talk, "Dying Well: The Catholic Art of Spiritual and Sacramental Care," to deepen your understanding of the Church's timeless teachings on preparing for death. Explore sacred practices, including the commendation of the soul, remedies for temptations faced by the dying, and guidance for their caregivers, all grounded in the redemptive example of Christ's Passion. Come to Mass and then attend the presentation by guest speaker Fr. John LoCoco to learn how to approach eternity with steadfast faith and reverence. Mass and presentation will take place January 31, at 8:00AM, at St. Mary's Visitation Parish, 1260 Church Street, Elm Grove. For more information and to register, go to <https://mgcma.org/events>.

Catholic trivia

Question: When Jesus was praying alone in the desert, how many times did the devil tempt Him?

Answer: Three
